

Admission requirements according to Carolineskolen statutes:

Carolineskolen enrolls children where the parent or parents, who have the opportunity, are members of The Jewish Community in Denmark (DJS).

If both parents are eligible for membership of DJS, membership is required for both. *1

Membership must be maintained throughout the child's schooling.

Documentation of membership of DJS must be attached upon enrollment. If documentation is not available at the time of enrollment, it must be submitted afterwards, no later than 1 August prior to school start.
